Full-time Employment

guts&brainsDDB
Sofia, Bulgaria
Graphic Designer
October 2020 – May 2021

During my 6-month contract employment at the advertising agency guts&brainsDDB, I acquired valuable experience working within a large team, catering to corporate clients. My responsibilities included the development and execution of extensive advertising campaigns for TV, adhering to brand guidelines for both print and digital content. Additionally, I successfully managed demanding workloads and tight deadlines by effectively delegating tasks among team members.

Freelance Jobs

Since 2015, I have been working as a freelance graphic designer, taking commissions from various clients. My working style revolves around effective and direct communication with clients, as well as close collaboration with artists, printers, and programmers throughout the production process. I am experienced in working with both print and digital materials, adapting to small and large-scale formats based on the specific concept, budget, and, above all, the client's preferences.
